

Weddings and Special Occasions

We know that special events, no matter how small or large, can be very stressful with all of the planning and decision making. When you choose us to cater you will have no stress with the food. We take care of all of the delivery, set-up and execution of the food. We can even staff your event to allow your family not to worry about refilling and breakdown. We can provide the chaffing dishes, plates, napkins and serving ware needed to make your special event a success.
